

BOARDING NEWS

Queenswood

Thank you to the many full, weekly and flexi-boarders who have contributed to this round-up of the term. We'd like to wish all our readers a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

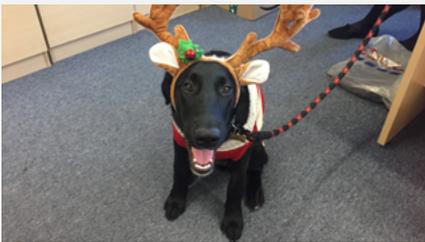

December 2021

What we get up to at the weekend

Nana, Elly and Jasmine look back on some of the exciting trips and activities that have taken place this term.

Indie – a 'Trew' friend

Georgie introduces us to Trew's newest resident – a 'a loveable, slightly insane husky flat coat retriever'!

One-term boarding at Q

Irene has spent the Autumn Term at Q. As she returns to Spain, she reflects on a really enjoyable three months experiencing a British education.

Welcome to the latest Boarding News from Queenswood. Click on the pink hyperlinks to read more.

A Message from Mrs Ludwick, Assistant Head Boarding

A warm welcome to this term's edition of our Boarders' newsletter. I do hope you enjoy reading about everything our boarders have done this term. It has certainly been a busy one, and thank you to our boarders for their article contributions!

It was a delight to return to quasi normal boarding routines in September. After months of depleted boarding houses last academic year, due to a large number of students remote learning, we welcomed back all our existing boarders, together with a very healthy new intake of new boarders. Read more

The Autumn Term in Stamp House

Maggie, Adrienne, Jessica, Chihiro and Ysabel report on a busy term in our junior boarding house. From pumpkin-picking to ice-skating, House Suppers to Treat Nights, there has been so much going on. Meanwhile, Phoebe tells us what it's like to be a flexi-boarder in Year 7.

A Week in the Life of a Centre Boarder

'I always love coming back on a Sunday. This is because when we come back things are very relaxed and chilled. We unpack our stuff for the week then have free time to rewind and get ready to be in school the next day...' Read more