

DANCE (AQA: A-Level 7237)

Dance is an exciting, predominately practical course that allows candidates to acquire performance and choreography experience in state-of-the-art facilities. Students will participate in high quality Dance performances and have a wonderful studio environment to develop their own creative work. Candidates will engage in critical thinking about Dance and are therefore encouraged to watch as much live theatre as possible. Regular theatre trips will be offered as part of the A-Level specification as well as visits to watch Dance companies. This course is suitable for confident, creative performers who have some previous Dance experience.

The course is split into the following two components:

Component 1 : Performance and choreography

- Solo performance based on a practitioner
- Performance in a quartet
- Group choreography
- Practical examination (50% of A-Level)

Component 2 : Critical engagement

- Knowledge, understanding and critical appreciation of 'Rooster' Christopher Bruce 1991
- Knowledge, understanding and critical appreciation of one set work chosen from a prescribed list by the candidate
- 2 hour 30 minute written examination (50% of A-Level)

WHERE NEXT?

Daniella Rocca

Musical Theatre with Foundation at the University of West London

Studied Dance, Drama and Theatre Studies, English Literature and Music