Next week I am reading...

With the half-term break upon us, we have swapped our weekly feature 'This Week I Am Reading...' for a compilation of recommended reads for each year group, courtesy of our Librarian, Mrs Truran. There's even a recommendation for parents, so the whole family can join in.

New Lunch and Supper Menus Announced

We are very proud to be one of a very limited number of schools in the UK currently able to offer a full service of hot meals for all pupils, with all dietary requirements catered for. Lunches are served to all girls and staff in three locations on a carousel, and breakfast and supper is available for boarders every day in the Dining Hall. Our provision is about to become even better, as we introduce a wider choice of Italian-inspired meals in the Pavilion cafe.

House Performing Arts Competition 2020

Girls from across the school pulled out all the stops to ensure that our annual 'HPA' Competition could take place this week – albeit online and socially distanced. We'd like to congratulate everyone who took part.

Maths: Puzzle of the Week

Girls and staff are registering for this weekly international puzzle competition, promoted by the Maths department. We would be grateful if you could encourage your daughter to join in, if she hasn't done so already: just click on the link.

Screenwatch: OQs on TV This Month

October is turning out to be a bumper month for OQs on screen. Click on the link above to find out about a range of exciting TV projects featuring former pupils.

Inter-House Football Competition

Congratulations to the winners of this week's Inter-House Football Competition: Hartley (Years 7 and 9), Waller (Year 8) and Clapham North (Year 10).

Every Dog Has Its Day: Welcome to 'Queenswoof'!

Inspired by the antics of Olive and Mabel, a pair of labradors taking YouTube by storm, we would like to introduce you to some of Queenswood's very own resident canine celebrities!

Scholars' Chapel: Black History Month

As part of our ongoing series of events to mark Black History Month, this week the second group of Senior Prefects gave presentations in Chapel about leading figures in civil rights movements past and present, including Maya Angelou, Claudette Colvin and Viola Davis.
