

NEWS FROM

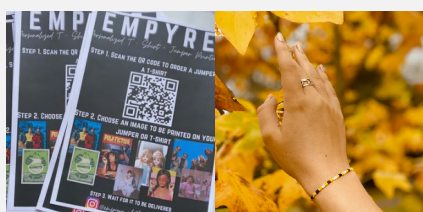

Queenswood

Thank you to the girls and staff who allowed our camera crew into their lessons last Thursday. We made a short film for our Virtual Open Event. You can watch it by clicking on the play button to the left.

News and information from www.queenswood.org | Friday 13 November 2020

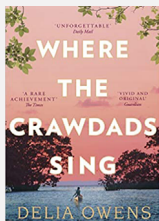

Tycoon in Schools

Tycoon is a unique national enterprise competition for students aged 6 to 18. Every participating team writes a business plan, is lent money, starts a business and trades, competing with other student companies through a kickstarter style platform, in a safe and controlled environment. This year four groups of Year 12 are participating. Today we are showcasing the work of two of the companies, Empyre, selling personalised graphic t-shirts and sweatshirts, and Celeste, who offer affordable and environmentally friendly jewellery. We will publish information about the other two companies in next week's newsletter.

This week I am reading...

Our contributor this week is Miss Erin Cronin of the English department. She has chosen Where the Crawdads Sing by Delia Owens.

It is the story of a young girl who raises herself in the wild marshes of North Carolina. There is a gripping murder mystery that runs through the book.

News from the classroom

Year 12 Chemists – titration fun!

Solving The Rubik's Puzzle: Sixth Former Imogen Cracks The Cube

Stunning examples of Drama design portfolios for set and costume

Welcome to the latest digest of news, events and blog posts from the website of Queenswood School. Click on the pink hyperlinks to read more.

Tennis Captain Annabel Courts Success at Northern Arizona University

It has been an exceptionally exciting week for Queenswood tennis and team captain Annabel, as she accepted her scholarship to Northern Arizona University on Thursday, signing her National Letter of Intent at school.

Youka Chosen For Ball Girl Role at Prestigious Tennis Event

In more tennis news, Year 10 tennis scholar Youka has been selected to be a ball girl at the Nitto ATP World Tour Finals. One of the biggest events in the UK's tennis calendar, the tournament will be hosted at the O2 next week.

Maths Week England

All week, Queenswood mathematicians have been joining up with pupils across the country to participate in online challenges, quizzes and activities to celebrate Maths Week England.

Odd Socks Day 2020 – Monday 16 November

In support of Anti-bullying Week 2020, girls and staff are looking forward to wearing their odd socks on Monday. Wearing odd socks is a great way to celebrate difference and to raise awareness around the issues of bullying.

Bebras Computational Thinking Challenge

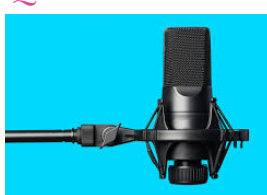

Computer Science students in Years 9 to 12 took part in the prestigious Bebras Computational Thinking Challenge this week. This is well-established competition is sponsored by Oxford University and Raspberry Pi.

Viruses, Vaccines and Virulence: An Update From Dr Vincini

As we enter the second week of lockdown number two, Queenswood's Head of Biology explains to us the Biology behind Covid-19 and how the new RNA vaccine could be our saviour.

Q Politics Podcast: Episode 2

In the latest edition, recorded before the second lockdown was announced, girls discuss the coronavirus restrictions. Meyiwa interviews Mr Daughton and asks whether there really is a North-South divide. All views and opinions expressed in this podcast are those of the participants and do not reflect any official policy or position of the School.