Online Talk on Generative AI

Simon Lovell, Assistant Head – Digital Learning, will be running an online information session on Generative AI for parents and guardians on Thursday 19 June at 6pm. You can join the Google Meet event by clicking here. Mr Lovell has also put together a very useful guidance document, which can be accessed here.

Weekend fun: picnic in the park

It's going to be a glorious weekend, so why not make the most of the sunshine and enjoy a picnic with friends or family. Here are some ideas for a picnic in the park – just watch out for the teddy bears!

This week I am reading...

Ocean by Sir David Attenborough and Colin Butfield

From the icy seas of our poles to remote coral islands, David Attenborough has filmed in every ocean habitat on planet earth. Now, with long-term collaborator Colin Butfield, he shares the story of our last great wilderness – the one which shapes the land we live on, regulates our climate and creates the air we breathe. A book almost a century in the making, but one that has never been more urgently needed. Also available on Audible.

Online Safety Talk with the Breck Foundation

The Breck Foundation is a charity with national relevance and impact, founded in 2014 in response to the tragic loss of Breck Bednar. They will be giving a talk on Online Safety for parents and staff in the Clarissa Farr Theatre at 5pm on Thursday 26 June. Click here if you would like to attend.

Isabel Hospice: The Cost of Caring – An Urgent Appeal

Queenswood has supported Isabel Hospice, a registered charity which provides free palliative care and support for patients and their families, for a number of years. We would like to share this important message with the school community. If you are able to help in any way, please follow the link above to find out how you can donate.

National Boarding Week and Camp Stamp

16–21 June is National Boarding Week, and there are many exciting activities planned for our full, weekly and flexi boarders. The celebrations begin this weekend, with our annual Camp Stamp – a mini festival on Stamp Lawn. Every evening next week we'll be laying on events to coincide with the BSA's programme of fun.

Art and DT Showcase Private View: Friday 4 July

We are delighted to invite the family and friends of all pupils studying art and design based subjects in Year 9 and above to the 2025 Art and DT Showcase Private View. This much-anticipated event celebrates our students' creativity and hard work and gives them the opportunity to exhibit their work to a wider audience.

Save the Date: Summer Concert 2025

We are delighted to invite you to this year's Summer Concert on Tuesday 1 July at 7pm. This year's concert will take place on Trew Lawn, with musicians performing under a covered stage, flanked by the view of the sun setting. We invite you to bring a picnic and picnic blanket or chair and enjoy the sounds of the summer.

Enrichment Week Activity Programmes

Enrichment Week, full exciting and enriching trips and on-site activities for Years 7–10 and Year 12, starts on Monday 16 June. Please note, there are two versions of the programmes for both Year 8 and Year 9. If your daughter is not travelling to France or the Battlefields, she will follow the 'UK Activities' itinerary.

The Season is Hotting Up for Queenswood's Athletes

Our athletics stars have been achieving great results in track and field events, as you can see from these recent posts from the QueenswoodSport Instagram feed.
